Present

2 Days of "must have" education in Fabulous Adelaide

14th and 15th of March 2013

14 Hours of Continuing Professional Development

Day One

Professional Boundaries— Are You Game to Cross the Line

- This will be a provocative and challenging one day workshop with lots of humour and light bulb moments
- The facilitator will share stories from the work she has been conducting with individuals and groups in terms of professional boundary issues
- There will be much time for discussing and exploring the constructs important to understanding professional boundaries in whichever areas health professionals work in

The Presenter is Dr Wendy McIntosh who specialises in this area and is an engaging, innovative and passionate presenter.

Objectives:

- Understand the professional boundary definitions - what they really mean
- Describe and understand the boundary framework - the see-saw and the traffic lights
- Identify and discuss warning signs of boundary transgressions
- Discuss and appreciate the multiple reasons for boundary transgressions
- Identifying and implementing strategies for professional boundary management - it's in your hands!

Day 2

Chronic Wound Care Master Class

- Wound care is a critical nursing function that requires skill and knowledge to achieve the best possible outcomes. This workshop is focused on best practice from a practical perspective in the 'real world' where time and resources are often limited

The presenter for this session is Cheryl Dezotti author of Wound Care Practical Tips – the bits you need to Know'

Professional Practice Responsibilities

- Professional Practice is an area that nurses take seriously, yet still find daunting. This workshop will shine the spotlight on key professional practice issues and clear the confusion that is often experienced when dealing with the scope of Professional Practice.

The presenter is Sue Walker who brings a broad history of clinical practice and organisational management experience to the discussion.

We've also negotiated an optional fabulous wine tour on the 16th of March and a dinner on the evening of the 14th for your enjoyment
