INTEGRATED

9 AUGUST 2022 | 0900-1230 hrs
(incl am break)

Workshop content : During this one & a half days virtual workshop, the facilitator will discuss and explore with you the “foundation stones” of professional boundaries. Using a number of actual case scenarios participants will experience the complexities of professional boundaries whilst appreciating the ease with which transgressions occur. Through exploring the professional boundary framework you will be able to experience the continuum of over and under involvement. The workshop provides a discussion and space in which you can identify and practice a range of strategies to assist you develop and maintain boundaries in your professional role.

Facilitator : Dr. Wendy McIntosh PhD,
RN Grad Dip MH, MN

Professional Boundaries require us to hold a line in every situation, calling on us to be present & creative in each circumstance. It is paramount for staff working in people-related industries to appreciate and understand the complexities of safe professional boundaries. We will explore various themes which help to deepen knowledge and skills in working safely, and with care.

Themes explored during this workshop include:

- Understanding the language and definitions in professional boundaries
- Explore the professional boundary framework including over and under involvement and context
- Identify vulnerability hot spots for the professional that could lead to transgressions
- Explore the complex and nuanced reason for boundary transgressions
- Identify strategies to establish and maintain professional boundaries
