INTRODUCTION

Education on professional boundaries and professional authority is crucial for individuals in various fields. It typically involves understanding ethical guidelines, maintaining confidentiality, respecting limits in relationships, and recognizing the scope of one's expertise. Explore case studies using role-playing scenarios to apply knowledge and practice navigating collegial professional boundaries in a learning environment. This education helps professionals navigate complex situations with integrity and ensures the safety and well-being of those they serve.

OBJECTIVES

1. Recognise appropriate boundaries in professional relationships and the potential impact of transgressing collegial boundaries.
2. Understand principles of ethics and why they are so integral to collegial boundaries (decision making and behaviour)
3. Understand power differentials and dynamics within professional relationships and developing own professional authority to avoid misuse of authority and to challenge misuse of authority
4. Define and acknowledge the limits of professional expertise, encouraging a humble and responsible approach to knowledge and skills.
5. Develop effective communication skills to enhance professional authority to establish and maintain collegial boundaries
6. Explore strategies for handling challenging situations where collegial boundaries may be tested or unclear.
7. Discuss relevant laws and regulations pertaining to professional conduct and collegial relationships.

FACILITATOR

Dr Wendy McIntosh

RN GRAD DIP MH, MN PHD

Establishing her own company Davaar Consultancy Training & Development in 2005, Wendy has over 30 years as a health professional (clinical, education and research), twenty-five of those years in mental health. Areas of specific interest and passion for Wendy include: professional supervision, professional boundaries, professional identity, links between childhood trauma and mental illness and workplace bullying.

Wendy has over 20 years as a psychodrama trainee – a life long learning. She is committed to using experiential learning in the work she does with individuals and groups. Regularly presenting workshops at national & International conferences, Wendy consistently receives feedback on her passion, knowledge and creativity as a presenter & facilitator.

Wendy is continually integrating learning and insights she gains from the work she does in professional boundaries. Wendy has developed internet training tools and education packages for individuals / organisations and delivers webinars for a variety of organisations nationally and internationally.

With the assistance of six podcast episodes titled ‘Professional Boundaries’, Wendy is exploring and guiding listeners on their own personal and reflective journey through boundaries. This series of professional boundaries podcasts has been picked up by the School of Health and Social Care, Edinburgh Napier University to be used in their curriculum. Further podcasts are currently in production.

Wendy was Charter President of the Global Nurses & Midwives Rotary Club. An innovative, diverse and inclusive Rotary Club whose members come from around the world.
